BROCKTON – Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz has announced indictments against a Wrentham man accused of sexually assaulting children in his care while working as an attendant at a daycare at Bridgewater State University.

The Plymouth County Grand Jury today returned indictments against Kyle P. Loughlin (DOB: 6/24/93) on two charges of Aggravated Statutory Rape and two charges of Aggravated Rape of Child, six counts of Indecent Assault and Battery on a Child Under 14.

The indictments stem from allegations that Loughlin allegedly sexually abused several children between January and March, 2015 while he worked at the Bridgewater State University childcare center.

Loughlin was additionally indicted on one count of Larceny from a Building for allegedly stealing pairs of underwear from victims at the daycare facility.

He is scheduled to be arraigned at a later date.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant District Attorneys Jeremy Beth Kusmin and Amanda Fowle and was investigated by State Police assigned to the Plymouth County District Attorney's Office and the Bridgewater State University Police.
